

Ginger Kenya Africa experience 2018

Giraffe home for injured animals

Night view of watering hole

Owen, James out driver and Ginger

Mother and babies elephants

Tired Giraff

Lion's Looking for lunch

This was one of the most wonderful trips I have taken as a travel agent. I got to share this with my husband Owen. The people we met were so friendly. And being able to see the animals in their natural habitat was unbelievable. If this is not on your bucket list it should be!!

Our range of options reflects the diversity of Africa itself. Whether you're interested in wildlife, culture, or more physical pursuits like climbing or diving, we have the tools and expertise to transform your interests into reality. View the great wildlife spectacles of such iconic places as the Maasai Mara, Serengeti, and Ngorongoro Crater or savor the unspoiled wilderness of Botswana's Okavango Delta. Cruise the Nile in Egypt, climb the towering dunes of Namibia, enjoy a private wildlife reserve at Kruger Park in South Africa, track gorillas in Rwanda, or climb majestic Mount Kilimanjaro. We're here to make the African adventure you've always dreamed of become a reality.
